

Parking Near the Family History Library

Patrons may use public parking facilities, generally for a fee. Street-side, metered parking is also available and is free for two hours on Saturday and free all day on holidays.

Several public parking lots are available in the area. Fees vary from $1 per hour and up. The map below shows public parking lots downtown near the library.

