SELECTED.

DIED.

MYOOCK.—At Manchester, January 18th, 1904. of old age, Sister Sarah Cook Mycock. Sister Mycock was born at Cranwell, Lincolnshire, Febuary, 18th, 1821, and was baptized a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, at Salford, Lancashire, May 9th, 1841. During her sixty-three years of connection with the Saints, she lived true to the Gospel which she embraced, and she died full of faith and hope in the resurrection of the just.

DITTY.—Brother Samuel Ditty died at Belfast, January 31, 1904. He was the son of William and Mary McDow Ditty; born November 4th, 1863; baptized April 22nd, 1899. The deceased was a faithful [illegible]

THE LATTER-DAY SAINTS'

MILLENNIAL ST

[ESTABLISHED 1840].

"Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom: a getting get understanding. Exalt her, and she shall promot bring thee to honour, when thou dost embrace her. She sh head an ornament of grace: a crown of glory shall she de
PROVERBS 4: 7-9.

No. 7, Vol. LXVI. Thursday, February 18, 1904.

THE GERMAN MISSION.

BY PRESIDENT HUGH J. CANNON, OF THE GERMAN

No missionary is competent to judge whether his work is s If success or failure depended upon the number of persons bap an easy matter to decide. Then, some of the most energetic ever gone out into the missionary field would be failures, ar