

L. Shipley

PRESTON — Lyle Tams Shipley, 77, of Preston, Idaho, died Sunday, Nov. 1, 1992, of complications following a long battle with Parkinson's Disease. He was born Feb. 25, 1915, in Franklin, Idaho, to William Cecil Shipley and Ellen Tams. He attended Preston High School and Utah State University. He married Donna Ann Prows in the Logan LDS Temple on Dec. 12, 1941. They recently celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary.

Throughout his life he was active in his community and the LDS Church. He served as a music educator for 35 years and as Preston mayor and council member for 12 years.

He is survived by his wife of Preston and four children: Janet Shipley Cain of Driggs, Idaho; Richard Lyle Shipley of Farmington; Robert Dail Shipley of Idaho Falls, Idaho; and Carolyn Shipley Jaussi of Providence. He had 24 grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren; a sister, Fern Shipley Kelley and a brother, Keith Dale Shipley, both of Salt Lake City. He was preceded in death by Georgia McGavin, their two infant sons and a grandchild, Maree Shipley.

Funeral services will be held at noon on Thursday, Nov. 5, 1992, at the Preston 7th Ward Chapel. Friends may call from 6-8 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 4, at Webb Funeral Home and from 10:30-11:30 a.m. Thursday, Nov. 5. Burial will be in the Preston City Cemetery.
