

Dunkirk Observer 4 May 2004: Floyd "Buck" Rogers

age 86, died Saturday May 1, 2004 in Lake Shore Hospital, Irving, New York. He was born July 4, 1917 in Collins Center, the son of Hurley J. and Bertha Poole Rogers. He was a veteran of World War II and attained the rank of buck sergeant. He is survived by two sons: Floyd J. "Jack" Rogers of South Dayton and Patrick J. Rogers of Almond, NY; two daughters: Margaret A. VanWarmer of South Dayton and Teresa Rogers of Jamestown; eight grandchildren: nine great-grandchildren; and a sister, Harriet Mackmer of Bliss, NY. He was preceded in death by his wife, Gladys M. Pagett Rogers, whom he married Aug 14, 1943; four brothers: Earl, William, Harold and Wesley; and four sisters: Gladys Degenfelder, Dorothy Taylor, Hazel Lawton and Florence Ortel. A private funeral service will be held at the convenience of the family. Arrangements are by the Hills Funeral Chapel, South Dayton.