

This on my Mother's side of Family -

Obituary.

---

Margaret Ellen, daughter of Joshua and Isabelle Bozarth, was born October the 27th, 1833. Died February 4th, 1909. Age 75 years, 3 months and 9 days.

She was united in matrimony to Wilson V. Vansky, May 22, 1850. To this union was born four children, one of whom, Dora A., preceded her parents to the better land.

The husband and father died November the 7th, 1875.

The deceased was married to Jacob Cain, February the 21st, 1878, with whom she lived until again rendered companionless by death August 21, 1897. She has since lived with her children.

She was a member of the M. E. church and was ever ready to testify to the saving merits of the blood of Jesus Christ.

Her favorite songs were, "God Be With You Till We Meet Again," and "We'll Never Say Good-bye in Heaven." Her favorite Psalm was the 23rd Psalm, "The Lord is My Shepherd," etc. Among her last words she exclaimed, "The Lord is coming." She closed her eyes like a tired child and gently fell asleep. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord."

Those left to mourn her loss are three daughters and one step-son, namely: Mary Miller, Sarah Jane Hamilton, Lilly F. Beckman and Edward Cain, besides a host of other relatives and friends. Fourteen grand children, six great grandchildren.

Weep not, for her who now at rest,
Where care and pain no more annoy,
Have reached the heaven of the blest,
And realize immortal joy.
Her spirit smiles from that bright shore
And softly whispers, "weep no more."