

MRS. M. A. PEACOCK DEAD

Pioneer Woman Whose Father Located Manti Expires After Long Illness.

MRS. MARY A. PEACOCK.

(Special to The Herald-Republican.)

Ephriam, April 19.—Funeral services will be held in Manti tomorrow for Mrs. Mary A. Peacock, who died in the home of her son, John L. Peacock, at Sterling, Sunday. Mrs. Peacock was a resident of Manti, but about two months ago she went to Sterling, thinking the change might be beneficial to her health.

She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Lowry and was born in Clay county, Missouri, November, 1834. While she was a young woman her parents became converted to the Mormon religion and about 1849 they set out for Utah, after having suffered many hardships. They crossed the plains with the ox teams and landed in Salt Lake during the fall of 1849, after a long and perilous journey. The following year Mr. Lowry was called to locate and start the settlement. He arrived where Manti now stands when the snow was very deep. He and his daughter and another family lived in their wagons during the winter and in the spring built their home of logs. Mr. Lowry was the first bishop of Manti, which office he held for many years. In 1854 Miss Lowry was married to Judge George Peacock, who died 31 years ago. She was the mother of ten children, who are as follows: John L. Peacock and Roldo Peacock, both of Sterling; B. L. Peacock of Emery; C. A. Peacock, Price; Mrs. S. L. Peacock, Hiawatha; D. L. Peacock, Orangeville, all of whom are living, and George Mobile, Luella and Rosabella, dead. She also leaves 31 grandchildren and 15 great grandchildren and a twin sister, Mrs. Bishop Petty of Sterling. Mrs. Peacock leaves a host of friends to mourn her loss.
