

MARRIED—Oct. 2, 1897, at the residence of the bride's parents, three miles north of this city, A. P. Wilcox and Miss Leva C. Billings, of North Enid. The groom, Mr. Wilcox, is too well and favorably known by the people of Enid and Garfield county to need favorable mention at our hands. He has been postmaster at Enid for four years, and although comparatively a young man has so ably and efficiently managed the business that he has proven eminently satisfactory to the patrons of the office. We have not learned what "Pat" may have mapped out for the future, when he retires from the postoffice, but we do know if he remains in Enid it will be a source of gratification to his host of friends in this city. The fortunate and happy bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Billings, of North Enid township, and it is not saying too much when we state that she is one of Garfield county's fairest daughters.—Intelligent, bright, capable and fascinating.—North Enid Sun.

The beautiful bride was born in Marion and has a host of friends here, all of whom will heartily unite with the RECORD in wishing her the greatest possible happiness in her new relation.
