John David Peters & Louisa Bingham Peters Family Directory
A Tribute
by
Mamie Peters Call, a daughter

John David Peters and his faithful wife, Louisa Bingham Peters, left a rich heritage of devotion, self-respect, and dignity for their children. Their ten children have passed on to their descendants the feeling of love and respect due this beloved and worthy couple. During the more than sixty years of married life their devotion, one for the other, never varied and their love and interest in their family remained intact.

This pioneer couple lived the principles they believed and demonstrated their convictions in their daily lives. Enamored with self-respect, they maintained a home free from gossip, lewd conversation, and rude behavior. A quick look from Father's dark Welsh eyes was all that was needed to remind his children they were getting out of line. Humble as it might be, they held respect for their home just as they did for the ordinances of their church and the laws of the land.

Mother came from a proud and independent family and had a modest dignity which was frequently interpreted by her husband's relatives as pride. She was eldest in the Perry Bingham family and, as Father's wife, remained in Utah while other Bingham family members continued to settle in Clifton, Idaho. One of her brothers, Calvin Bingham, is the grandfather of Apostle Harold B. Lee, whose mother was given the name Louisa in my Mother's honor.

Mother's civic and church career was shortened when her hearing became impaired. She did, however, give several years' service as president of the Primary Association and later as a counselor in the Box Elder Stake Relief Society. She was a capable adviser and had the reputation of being a fluent speaker.

Father left to his family the dignity of outstanding leadership. Having settled with his young bride (he was 19, she 16 when they were married) in Three Mile Creek (now known as Perry, Utah), he began his public career teaching in the local school. In his desire for more education, he managed to attend a short period of school at Logan. Later, with five children added to the family, he and Mother had the courage to move with their brood to Salt Lake, where Father completed his education at the University of Deseret, now known as the University of Utah. He returned to make a home in Brigham City where once again he became a teacher.

He soon became a leading figure in church and state, actively engaged in both civic and religious affairs. He was twice elected as Superintendent of Box Elder schools. He served a term as Probate Judge of Brigham City, and was elected County Clerk. He served as mayor of Brigham City and was a member of the state legislature. He was a delegate to the Constitutional Convention of 1895 which adopted a constitution for the State of Utah effective the next year. He served as a member of the Board of Trustees of the Utah Agriculture College, now known as Utah State University.
A devout man, Father held many prominent positions in the church. In 1895 he was called to fill a mission in Wales, and while there visited his parents' birthplace. At the time of his death he was a Patriarch.

Upon his return from his mission, he was again elected Superintendent of Schools. He became interested in the banking business and was one of the founders of the First National Bank of Brigham City, of which he served as cashier and president. Alert and active, at 82 he was at his desk at the bank six weeks before his death in September, 1931. His last words included the statement: "I am not afraid to die. I have always tried to be an honest man." After a life of devoted service, his wife, Louisa Bingham Peters, died February 7, 1935. They were the parents of ten children.
