

Candy Rochelle Brown

Candy Rochelle Brown, 62, died January 16, 2015, at her home in Los Angeles, CA of natural causes.

Ms. Brown was born, May 30, 1952, to Geraldine Smith and George McDuffy-Brown of California. She grew up in a large family of brothers and sisters. She was a very affectionate woman who would show her love and gratitude through hugs and kisses. She was deaf as a young child through an illness, yet this has never stopped her from enjoying what the world had to offer.

Candy spent 7 years of her life homeless, until the community G.L.A.D. helped her. The Greater Los Angeles, Agency on Deafness, in Los Angeles, California. Through the G.L.A.D. community she was able to relearn her signing skills lost through homelessness and improper signing education. It was with G.L.A.D.'s kindness and help that she was able to find a place to live where she was much loved and treated with much kindness.

She is an active member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. She was a faithful member of the Church and devoted Mormon.

Candy was a student at North Valley Occupational Center, Mission Hills, California.

Her brother and sister, Alfonso Brown and Winona Stevenson, survive Candy. Her nieces Patricia, Simone, and Teresa, and her nephew in California. All her beloved family and friends, living in California and beyond.

"Life is about change, sometimes it's painful, sometimes it's beautiful, but most of the time it's both"

'For everything there is a season, a time for every experience under heaven: A time to be born and a time to die, A time to plant and a time to uproot what is planted, A time to tear down and a time to build up, A time to weep and a time to laugh, A time to grieve and a time to dance, A time to throw stones and a time to gather stones, A time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing, A time to seek and a time to lose, A time to keep and a time to discard, A time to tear and a time to sew...'
