Gilbert — Tuthill

Patricia Ann Tuthill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell L. Tuthill became the bride of John L. Gilbert III on December 10th. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Gilbert of Newport News, Va.

The afternoon ceremony was held in the First Presbyterian Church at 55th and 5th Avenue, New York City, with the Rev. Jones officiating. A reception followed in the Library Room of the St. Regis Hotel.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She was attired in a short dress of white silk ottoman with a headpiece of velvet and carried a bouquet of gardenias.

Miss Rosalind Tuthill, sister of the bride, was maid-of-honor, wearing a dress of pink silk brocade, matching headpiece and carrying a bouquet of white orchids.

Wallace Wyatt, friend of the groom, acted as best man.

Mrs. Gilbert is a graduate of Mattituck School and Eastern Airline Training School.

Mr. Gilbert is a graduate of Virginia schools and is employed by ABC-TV.

After a two-week honeymoon in Puerto Rico and Virgin Islands, the newlyweds will reside in New York City.
