Thomas J. Mazanec

(October 29, 1921 - June 5, 2008)

 THOMAS JOHN MAZANEC, age 86, devoted husband of Helen (nee Rambousek); loving father to David (Catherine), Thomas (Sandy), Terry (Cindy), Douglas, Scott (Kim), and Lee (Luba); story-telling grandfather to 12; and big-hearted uncle to numerous nieces and nephews.

Mr. Mazanec was a graduate of St. Ignatius High School and John Carroll University, a WWII veteran (Philippines), a life-long entrepreneur, and a devout Catholic who lived his life with an unquenchable sense of warmth, friendship, and generosity.

For some 45 years, he ran the Mazanec Insurance & Realty Company, a firm he bought from his father and uncle. He was a success as a businessman and parent, always finding time to coach his sons' Little League teams, taking them on trips to county fairs and national parks, and teaching them the value of a dollar, and service to others.

Tom, like his wife Helen, was a life master in bridge, and enjoyed traveling to tournaments throughout the U.S. especially to Daphne, Ala., where they owned a condominium, and Tom fed the seagulls, battled the ants, and found inspiration for his stories.
