

MRS. SLATON SAYS SHE 'TOTED' A GUN

When Georgia's Executive Was in Peril His Wife Guarded Him.

New York, July 8.—How peril made a "gun toter" of a governor's wife; how the woman accustomed to every luxury that beauty and position can command suddenly found herself learning the lesson of the pioneer wife, to "stand by and keep a stiff upper lip"; how she even went smiling to the dentist every morning during the riots that her husband might not suspect she was frightened—this is the story of Sarah Slaton.

COMMISSIONERS GO AFOOT THROUGH MUD

Allen County Board Hits a Region Where Car is Useless.

Accustomed to Allen county's superb highways, County Commissioners Butt, Schiwer and Black were compelled to submit to something different Thursday morning when they went down to the Adams county line to meet the board from that county to inspect the site of a culvert on the Holly road, a joint highway between the two counties.

NEWS OF THE COURTS

The suit of Matthew Hillsbrand vs. John Provines, growing out of a real estate deal in which fraud is alleged, is on trial before Judge Yapple and a jury in the superior court. The suit was brought here on a change of venue from the Huntington circuit court.

Receiver Jess Edision of the Mimus theater has been authorized by the superior court to issue receiver's certificates in order to pay the employees of the establishment.

The suit of Charles Hiker, et al. vs. Henry D. Hart, et al., has been dismissed from the superior court.

The will of the late Jennie Ferris has been filed for probate in the circuit court. She leaves her entire estate, real and personal, to her adopted daughter, Geneva Ferris, after making small bequests to two nephews.

The superior court has ordered James Noonan to pay $2 a week to his wife, Frances Noonan, who is suing for divorce, and entered a similar order for payment of $3 a week in the suit of Susie White vs. William White for divorce.

The last will and testament of the late Frederick Wursten, of Fort Wayne, has been filed for probate. The testator left his entire estate to his son, Fred T. Wursten, of Chicago, and named David H. Hogg executor.

The superior court has granted a divorce to Louise M. Kayser from Anthony Kayser, given her the custody of two minor children and an allowance of $4 a week for their support.

John W. Bowers, stone road builder, 62, and Helena A. Pegg, 65, 20 KNOWN DEAD AT CINCINNATI ALONE known last night appears to be heavy, particularly in the resident sections of Clifton, Avondale and College Hill.

With one exception, that of five buildings at Sixth and Mound streets, no locality appears to have suffered more than the other.

Rescue work was still proceeding early today, but it will be many hours before a full list of casualties is obtainable.

The plant of the Western Union Telegraph company on the fifteenth floor of the Taggart building was prostrated. Windows were blown in, admitting the rain in such volume as to flood the office, rendering useless the dynamo and other equipment.

Several freight cars on the Pennsylvania railroad were overturned at Terrace park. Two of the cars contained valuable running horses.

Race Horse Train Wrecked. It was ascertained definitely today that a special train on the Pennsylvania carrying race horses from the recently ended meeting at Latonia to the eastern tracks was wrecked at Terrace park a short distance from this city.

Deaths. Nine of what are considered the best horses that raced at the Latonia meeting were killed. It was also reported that two caretakers were killed and nineteen others injured, including several jockeys.

Driving Attack Nearer. Carranza Forces Within Ten Miles of Mexico City.

Washington, July 8.—The Carranza forces have pushed their attack on the convention forces defending Mexico City up to within ten miles of the capital.

at St. Charles had been overestimated. While the tornado swept a section of the city eighteen blocks long by nine blocks wide, the damage, with the exception of the demolition of one church and the partial wrecking of another church, a factory, a hospital and a convent, was confined largely to the unroofing of houses and the uprooting of trees.

Wabash Train Overturned. Between Gilmore and Wentzville, a Wabash passenger train known as the Colorado limited, crossed the path of the storm and the first four coaches in the train were neatly plucked by the wind and laid to one side of the right of way.

Not a person was injured seriously in this accident. Those in the ditched cars ran back to the five passenger coaches left standing on the tracks; these were coupled to the tender and the train proceeded on its journey.

Two miles west of O'Fallon the wind lifted a buggy off the road, carried it with horse and three occupants through the air for 200 yards, and then hurled it to the ground.

Many Homes Demolished. At Dardenne, Mo., the home of Thomas Flaherty was demolished and Mrs. Flaherty and her two children were killed.

At Wentzville, Mo., Mrs. Hermann Oberland was killed, and a girl and the body of Frank Kurm were found on the railroad station platform after the storm.

St. Charles, after a night of total darkness—the electric light plant having been put out of commission—today looked upon damage to the entire central portion of the city, including more than 100 residences.

Many Towns Isolated. The property in St. Charles alone, it is believed, will aggregate nearly half a million dollars.

The proper extent of the damage to the wheat in St. Charles and St. Louis counties is estimated at more than $100,000.

WINONA REVELS IN ORCHESTRA COMIQUE

Casts Aside Customary Dignity and Enjoys Musical Salmagundi.

Winona Lake, Ind., July 8.—The people of Winona laid aside their customary dignity on Wednesday evening, when the Orchestra Comique gave its entertainment.

Miss Helen Lyon and James Heaton rendered a duo for tuba and bassoon. Miss Lyon's helicon, made from thirty or forty feet of lawn hose, and Jim Heaton's bassoon, improvised from a bicycle pump, produced exquisite music.

Miss Claire Hatfield executed Silver Threads Among the Gold on a double bass viol, constructed from a clothes basket, broom, dust pan and a liberal quantity of wool twines.

Paul Roberts drew some marvelous tones from his slide trombone, first while an adjustable hat rack, in one of the Park Row boarding houses.

Henry Backemeyer's saxophone spasm set the audience wild. He was recalled twice. Mr. Backemeyer is a new man at Winona, but he suddenly gained an enviable position of eminence in his brilliant debut last evening.
