

Joined the Majority.

Jerry Weaver, one of the best known, and old-time engineers on the C. I., died yesterday at noon. Deceased has been employed by the company for a period of twenty years.

During that time he has never been the cause of injuring any one, which is something very rare in the annals of railroading. Weaver was taken sick last Tuesday evening, and died yesterday at the time stated.