

is introducing many salutary reforms. The Army of the Potomac, fortunate, may yet win laurels that will give the nation a just and ancient public sentiment that is now required to give to this rebellion. Let the people be zealous; let every letter of the Potomac breathe the spirit of freedom, and you will cease to hear of deceptions, and all that sort of things.

S. J. MENDELL.

BARBARITIES.—We find the evidence of rebel barbarity in the city of the 3d: "Some thirty men were taken from this city on Sunday, from Cherokee county, North Carolina, and relate many revolting cruel stories of the rebel fiends in that fearful region, upon loyal citizens. Some of the companies of Cherokee Indian provost guard in Knoxville.

few ounces of lead will cure him of all such tricks in the future. Col. Ellet with the crew of the Queen, escaped on the steamer Era, which had been previously captured. On their way up the river the pilot ran the Era aground, but she fortunately got off. He was then arrested.
