

4/22/88

Thomas 4th Ward conference is held

By ROBERTA MECHAM
and DONNA VANORDEN
West Stake

THOMAS — Thomas 4th Ward held its ward conference Sunday. Arnold Dance, stake president, presided and Bishop Jim Turpin conducted.

Nathalie Nielsen and Eric Lee were the youth speakers. Nielsen spoke on integrity, which is one of the seven Young Women values. Lee spoke on "How I Can Prepare Myself To Go On A Mission."

The ward choir sang "The Lord's Prayer." Bishop Turpin encouraged all to be forgiving and nonjudgmental of others. He said, "We will be forgiven by how we forgive others."

Stanley Williams of the stake presidency admonished the members to take care of their families, live the gospel and follow the teachings of the prophets. He stated that the youth need less critics and more good examples to follow.

Pingree 1st Ward held its Relief Society homemaking meeting April 12. Kathy Matthews gave a visiting teaching spotlight. Lola Butt gave the home management lesson on immunization of children. A class was given by Brian Finnigan of the extension office on gardening and lawn tips. A welfare quilt was tied and a luncheon served.

Relief Society homemaking meeting for Pingree 2nd Ward was held April 14. Pat Young of the District Health Office showed a film and talked about immunizations. Mini-classes included colors by Peggy Shawver and crock pot cooking by Karen Reed. A crock pot luncheon was prepared by Rhonda Elliot, Karen Reed, Kathy Raymond, Vickie Gentillon and Pat Durfee.

Homemaking meeting for the Moreland 2nd Ward Relief Society was held April 14. Lori K. Bair gave the home management lesson on immunization of children. Sally Wyne gave a talk on "How To Sparkle Up Your Marriage." JaLene Bingham, Roxie Gregersen, Carma McDermott, Kris Olsen, Laurel VanOrden and Laurel McBeth were in charge of the luncheon.

Thomas 1st Ward held its Relief Society homemaking meeting April 14. Janine Wood gave the home management lesson on immunization. Mini-classes included gardening by Peggy Morgan, mending by Elaine Harper and how to use new scraps of material by Pam Lake. A Mexican taster's table was prepared by Cheryl Thompson, Anita Martin and Pam Lake.

Alice Havens gave a book report on "Judge Me Not Dear Readers," in the Relief Society homemaking meeting in Thomas 4th Ward, April 14. Pat Young showed a film on immunization. Sandy Mathews showed the film "Why Mormons Are Called Mormons." Jack Young gave a class on gardening. A chef salad luncheon was served by Bonnie Egbert, Fern Hammond, Ann Ogden and Virginia Goodwin.

Stephen Hammond, son of Boyd and Ruby Hammond of Thomas 1st Ward, was ordained a deacon.

Jennifer Saunders, daughter of Lynn and Gail Saunders, received her certificate of advancement from Primary and was welcomed into the Young Women.

Mike Goodwin of Pingree 2nd Ward, received a mission call to the Manchester, England mission.

Francis Brown of Pingree 2nd Ward, has been called to a service mission in the Salt Lake Genealogy Department.