

LOCAL BRIEFS

Bar silver 65%. Lead $2.60.

T. G. Lyster, of the First National bank, and Mrs. Lyster, leave today on a visit to Denver.

Ike Stein, the popular traveling freight man of the Union Pacific, was in the city yesterday.

Ex-Governor Waite is expected to arrive in this city today and will open his campaign here tonight.

The Midland train last night brought in a large delegation of Aspenites who had attended the Farmers' fair at Glenwood Springs.

J. F. Spellman, Brooklyn, N. Y.; H. Moulton, O. H. Carter and J. H. Whitstone, Denver, were among yesterday's arrivals.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Hunt, who were expected to arrive home last night, have decided to visit Colorado Springs and Denver before returning.

Frank A Pierson has deeded an interest in certain lands in section 21, township 10, to Jacob Scheffel and a three-fourths interest in the Pierson water ditch; consideration $701.

J. C. Markle was fined $10 and costs, amounting in all to $37.05, in Justice Stone's court yesterday for having assaulted Joseph Leonard, who visited his blacksmith shop on business.

The session of the Aspen Debating society was adjourned last night out of respect to William Mason, one of the members, whose grandchild, Sidney Huettelman, was drowned yesterday.

The committee on arrangements for tomorrow night's meeting of the Bryan and Sewall club have arranged a splendid literary and musical program. The First Regiment band will be in attendance.

A. U. Magnan, manager of the Chicago Bazaar, returned from the East yesterday, where he went to purchase his fall and winter stock. It is one of the largest and most complete ever shipped into Aspen.

The King's Daughters will hold a pound party and social next Wednesday evening, September 30, at 7:30, at the residence of Mrs. McDonald, 737 Main street, corner of Original. Any one wishing to assist the King's Daughters with a pound are cordially invited.