

INSTRUCTIONS

READ CAREFULLY

Revised Code of 1913. Section 4361. Marriages may be solemnized by all judges of courts of record within their respective jurisdictions; by justices of the peace within their respective jurisdictions; by ordained ministers of the gospel and priests of every church; but marriages solemnized by the society of Friends or Quakers, according to the form used in their meetings shall be valid. No such person shall solemnize any marriage until the parties thereto shall produce a license, issued by the county judge of the county in which either one of the contracting parties resides, or if such county is unorganized of the county to which it is attached for judicial purposes.

When any person authorized by law shall solemnize a marriage, he shall fill out and sign a certificate following the marriage license on the blank form prescribed by law, giving his official title, or if a minister of the gospel or priest, the ecclesiastical body with which he is connected and return such license and certificate to the County Judge of the county where the license originally was issued, within thirty days thereafter. Such certificate shall be signed by two witnesses to the marriage ceremony in addition to the signature of the person who solemnized the marriage.

Section 9728. Every person who being authorized by law to solemnize marriages within this state, either:

- (1) Joins any person in marriage before the license prescribed by law therefore is produced to him; or
- (2) Fails to execute as prescribed by law the certificate of any marriage solemnized by him; or
- (3) Neglects for thirty days after joining in marriage the persons named in such license, to return such license and certificate to the judge of the county court issuing the license, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof is punishable by a fine of not less than fifty and not exceeding five hundred dollars.

Section 9729. Every person who attempts to join others in marriage or to perform the marriage ceremony for another within this State without being authorized by law so to do, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not less than ninety days and not exceeding one year, or by a fine of not less than one hundred and not exceeding five hundred dollars, or by both.
