

Charles Hollenbeck - obituary

Elmira Star Gazette

Elmira, NY

May 1, 1924

p. 2

DEATHS

CHARLES H. HOLLENBECK

Charles H. Hollenbeck, formerly a resident of Horseheads, died Wednesday at 4:30 p. m. at the family home in Phelps, aged sixty-seven years. The decedent is survived by his widow, four sons, Merrill of Elmira; Charles N., Marvin and Milden of Phelps; two brothers, O. J. Hollenbeck of Phelps and William Hollenbeck of Idaho; five sisters, Mrs. Herbert Perkins of Rochester; Mrs. O. Swarts of Olean; Mrs. John Amos of Medina; Mrs. William Reed of Clifton Springs; Mrs. Charles Wilbur of Phelps. The funeral will be held at Phelps Friday at 1 o'clock, the Rev. Mr. Winkworth to officiate. The remains will be removed to Horseheads for burial in Maple Grove cemetery. The committal service will be in the charge of Horseheads Lodge, I. O. O. F., of which society the decedent was a member. The members of the Horseheads lodge will meet at Maple Grove cemetery at 5:30 p. m. to meet the funeral party.