

Maida E. Borup

Sampling of Articles Extracted from the Idaho Statesman, Boise, Idaho 1934-1937

Source: GenealogyBank.com, accessed 9 January 2017 by Stephanie Bessire Mecham

Sunday Morning, April 8 1934, p. 11

SECOND WARD TO GIVE 3-ACT. PLAY TUESDAY The cast of a three-act comedy to be presented by the second ward Mutual Improvement association Tuesday evening at the L. D. S. recreation hall, Ninth and Washington streets, was announced Saturday by Amos Belnap, manager. Conon Mathews is directing. The play is "The District Attorney." Persons taking part are Charles	Kettenring, Thomas Call, Clifford Vaughn, Beatrice Hall, Grace Larsen, Marion Nokleby, T. V. Gwilliam, Louis Sheppard, Margaret Borup, Ila Loveland, Valdo Benson, Judson Tolman, Maida Borup and Francis Call. The first curtain will be at 8:15 o'clock. Dress In Yo
--	---

JUNIORS

Maida Borup, Clifford Darrah, Katherine Falls, Myrtle Hanson, Lois Hart, Nelva Jane Hopper, Anna Iriondo, Margaret King, Valborg Kjosness, Mary LeMoyne, Ruth Mayes, Grace Minson, Beverly Oakley, Vernou Officer, Margaret Rice, Sylvia Sarlat, Jeannette Saxton, Lucille Starkey, Helen Sullivan and Dorothy Thompson.

Boise Girls Join
B. Y. U. Social Unit

(Special to the Statesman)

PROVO, Utah—Miss Doris Robinson and Miss Maida Borup, both of Boise, are charter members of Geferan Roment, the first new social unit organized at Brigham Young university in 1937. Both Boise girls are freshmen. Miss Borup is majoring in political science and Miss Robinson in sociology.

Five other Idaho girls are charter members of the unit, which was organized through the efforts of Miss June Martineau of Pocatello, who is president. Other Idaho girls are Miss Helen Brown of Weiser, Miss Martha Denning and Miss Lalla Nielsen of Idaho Falls, and Miss Myrlene Richins of Burley.

Above: "Honor Student List Released—Three Hundred and Ninety One at Boise High School Make High Grades..."
Thursday Morning, May 2, 1935, p. 6

Right: Thursday Morning, Feb 18, 1937, p. 9