

Roland V. Bates & Maida Borup

Sampling of Articles Extracted from the Idaho Statesman, Boise, Idaho 1941-1942

Source: GenealogyBank.com, accessed 9 January 2017 by Stephanie Bessire Mecham

Boise Bride

—Photo By Fern Luella Burns
MRS. ROLAND V. BATES of Boise was Miss Maida Borup whose marriage was recently announced.

Miss Marjorie Staynor of Boise and Frank Crowther pledged vows in Salt Lake and Miss Genevieve Gault and George A. Halford were wed in Pendleton on June 28. Roland V. Bates and his bride, the former Miss Maida Borup, returned from Salt Lake where they were married June 25 in the L. D. S. temple. Miss Laura Reynolds and Bruce Lay were wed in June in Lewiston, and on June 12, Miss Virginia Tiner of Santa Monica and William Worthwine of Boise took vows in Nevada before going to Santa Monica to live.

Left: Monday Morning, July 14, 1941, p. 5

Above:
"Boise June Weddings Hold 1941 First Place"
Thursday Morning, January 1, 1942, p. 13