COLONEL BOYLE DEAD.

Yesterday afternoon at about 4 o'clock Col. E. D. Boyle passed away in Dayton.

Some weeks ago he was badly injured in a runaway accident which resulted in the death of his companion.

The Colonel ever since has been undergoing medical treatment, until last week he was able to be up and about in his room. He was attacked by pneumonia, however, and the latter illness was brief.

The remains and the family of the deceased will be met at the Mound House tomorrow evening by a large number of friends who will escort them to California.

NOTIFY THE SHERIFF.

During the last week or two Carson has been visited by a half dozen beggars--professional and likely unworthy of assistance. At least one of them had acquired the somewhat bad habit of helping himself to anything he thought he would need. Sheriff Kinney desires all citizens to immediately notify his office by telephone upon the approach of any of these gentry, and he will investigate them at once. People will simply be protecting themselves by so doing.
