

handle corner ore.

Mr. Crawley states to those who may be strangers to Reno and desire to have samples of ore assayed that if they will send to him such samples with full instructions, by mail or express, together with cost of assay, which will be 50 cents for each assay of samples carrying gold, silver or lead and 75 cents for each assay of samples carrying copper, he will cheerfully carry out their instructions and treat the same confidentially, have assay made, and promptly forward the certificate of same to those who may call upon him with such requests.

DEATH OF COL. BOYLE

A Prominent Comstocker Through With His Task and Gone.

The said news of the death of Colonel E. D. Boyle was received in Reno last night.

Colonel Boyle died at his home in Dayton of pneumonia. It will be remembered that he was badly hurt in a runaway accident on the road between Como and Dayton a few weeks ago, and his companion was killed in the same accident. For several days it was thought that Colonel Boyle was fatally injured, but he recovered only to be called a little later.

He was sitting with his family a few nights ago in Dayton when he was taken with a severe chill which was followed by pneumonia. He solved the mystery, that sooner or later all of us must confront.

Colonel Boyle was, perhaps, as well known as any of the old Comstockers, and has been an active man of affairs in western Nevada for over thirty years. He was a mining superintendent and an all round miner of ability. He was operating a mine in Como district at the time of his death.

Colonel Boyle leaves a wife, one son, Emmitt Boyle, and a large circle of friends and acquaintances. He was about sixty years of age.

Engagement Announced.

Cards are out announcing the engagement of Miss Ada Manhelm, formerly of Reno, and Eli Blum of San Francisco.
