

Mark M Dominguez passed away quietly in his sleep on April 19, 2007, at the age of 89. He was born Dec. 13, 1917, in La Junta, Colo. and lived in Pueblo since 1948. Retired from CF&I after 32 years of employment. Served in the Army Air Corps during World War II. Preceded in death by his parents, Benjamin (Della) and Ophelia Castillo (Tony); daughter, Rebecca; grandson, John E. Prado; wife, Ann Dominguez; brother, John; sisters, Lena Greico and Rose Dominguez. Survivors include daughters, Michele Prado-Landreth, Char Portman (Bob deceased), Danelle Kennedy (Mike); and sons, David A Dominguez and Ernest Dominguez; grandchildren, Rochelle Denman (Ralph Kyniston), Char Marie (Pat) Vitale, Tim (Penny), Shane and Randy Dominguez; great-grandchildren, DJ Prado, Brittany and PC Vitale, Louis Dominguez; great-great-grandchild, Damien Vitale. Mark was a very quiet man, who liked his garden and enjoyed working in the yard. A self taught handyman, he loved working in his garage fixing and inventing useful household items. Mark's military service during World War II included navigation, engineering and gunnery on B-24's. Viewing, 1 to 4 p.m. Monday at Imperial Funeral Home. Funeral service, 10 a.m. Tuesday, Imperial Memorial Gardens Chapel.

Mariora Carolyn Miller