Gerald Andrew Hite passed away at the age of 64 in Ontario

Gerald Andrew Hite passed away at his home in Ontario at the age of 64. He was born May 13, 1952, in Ontario.

He is survived by his mother and step-father, Marie (Jackson) Martin and Wayne Martin; as well as his brothers, Donald Hite, Jim (Emily) Hite, Jack (Debbie) Hite and John (Terri) Hite; his sisters, Joan Anderson, Faye (Tim) Cooley and Nancy Smith; his four children, Anna (Jeremy) Logan, Angie Merrill, Amanda (Darin) Nygard and Gerald Hite Jr.; and 10 grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his father, Edgar Hite.

Gerald was able to use his broad range of expertise to solve problems in a significant number of different subject areas. He enjoyed entertaining people by recounting stories and as a musician who sang and played the guitar. He worked most of his life as a heavy equipment operator and mechanic and had his own excavation business. He enjoyed being outdoors, especially near the water, and expressed wonder and connectedness with creation. He had an uncanny ability to communicate with animals and babies, and he was adored by all who knew him.

A memorial service will be held at 1 p.m. Jan. 28, 2017, at the Powell Butte Community Center in Powell Butte.
