

MY MATERNAL FAMILY TREE

Page

GRANDMOTHER THERESA'S SISTER ROSALIE JHEJL's Daughter-in-Law's Obituary. Emilie Hejl, wife of Mother's cousin Frank Edward Hejl, Sr. She was Ella (Mrs. Charlie) Macek's mother. (F.E.Sr. is Rosalie's oldest child.)
(My English Translation:)

Announcement of Death and Offer of our Thanks

We are announcing to all our friends and loved ones, that it has pleased the Lord God to call to Himself our beloved wife, mother and grandmother who has finished this world's journey on Sept. 12, 1951. From the bottom of our hearts, we thank all those who in any way tried to cheer her in her 8 month, and 3 day long lasting suffering.

E M I L I E H E J L

We give thanks to Dr. Chernosky, Dr. Lesikar, Dr. Blaylock, and Dr. Brown. Nurses Mrs. Shiller, Mrs. Childres, Mrs. Reynolds, Mrs. Zavadské, Mrs. Shotwell, and Mrs. Shenkyf. Special thanks to all who donated blood, Mr. F. W. Martinec, Mr. William Lee Zabcik. We thank all those who brought flowers during her long illness and also to her funeral. We thank Rev. F. J. Kostohryz and Rev. H. E. Beseda for their works of sympathy and cheer. We thank the choir for their lovely songs and Mrs. Kostohryz for accompanying them on the organ.

We thank Brother J. J. Mikeska for bringing sympathy from the SPJST Organization. We thank the funeral director, Mr. Edward Pace, for his kind and beautiful handling of the funeral. We thank the pallbearers for carrying our loved one on her last journey, the church caretaker for taking care of ringing the church bell and getting the church ready, and all those who brought the vast amount of food to the home of sorrow. We thank the Supreme Lodge of SPJST for the fast and swift payment of the death benefit. And all those who, in any which way, tried to be helpful to us during our sorrow, we ask God to repay you.

Sleep yourself a sweet sleep dear wife, mother and grandmother. We will not forget you, till we meet again there at the feet of our dear Lord.

Survivors: F.E. Hejl, Sr., husband; F.E. Hejl, Jr., Emil J. Hejl, and Jerry R. Hejl, sons; Mrs. Emilie Juneck, Mrs. Ella Macek, Mrs. Adela Mares, Mrs. Lillie Mikulas, Mrs. Evelyn Marek and Miss Dorothy Hejl, daughters; Mrs. Clara, Frances and Adela Hejl; and 17 grandchildren.

*The Czech version of this obituary appeared in the SPJST Newspaper "VESTNIK" Sometime after Sept. 12, 1951.