FIRE AT LIBERTY.—On Monday morning last, about 4 o'clock, the house of Alois Gehrig, near Turn's Hotel, was discovered to be on fire. Prompt action of the citizens saved the house, although much damaged by the flames. The fire originated in an unfrequented part of the house, and could not possibly have been accidental. Suspicion is attached to a son-in-law of Gehrig's, who, it is said, had made threats of burning the house, and his arrest is determined upon.
