

We are to have a new drug store.
The shoe shop of Alois Gehrig is being fitted up and Edward Voorhes, until lately a clerk at Wygant's, will occupy it. Ed. is a good fellow, understands the business, and we wish him success in his undertaking, hoping it will have the effect to cheaper drugs ; they are awful high in this town at present.
Dr. Saxton has fitted up an office in the

g
g
a
c f
v
c
w