

COHOCTON.

O. S. Searl has moved his law office to Totten's building.

J. B. Clayton intends to build a barn on his lot the coming summer.

C. E. Thorp went to New York last week with two carloads of stock.

Philip Gehrig is in town settling up the estate of his father, Alois Gehrig.

Sunday morning, Feb. 6, the thermom-

at P F
st
C 1
w
P T