

Open House Held For Peter Munk

Following the meeting held Sunday in honor of Mr. Munk a reception was held for him at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Anderson.

A color scheme of yellow and white was carried out. A lace cloth covered the table, which was centered with a birthday cake, carrying one hundred candles. On either end of the table candleabras with tall yellow tapers were used.

The three hundred guests who called were greeted at the door by the guest of honor and his children, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Livingston, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Davenport and Wm. Munk.

Mr. Munk appreciated the kindness shown him on "his" day by his family and his many friends and his appreciation was embodied in the words on a small card given to each guest.

"I welcome you this hundredth birthday.

Thanks for wishes kind and true.
May heaven's choicest blessing
Bring peace and joy to you.
