A Singing Birthday Card
(Tune Grandfathers Clock)

Word composed by
Inerva Davenport and Ruth Scow

Dear Grandfather Munk is 100 years today.

But to us, he has never been old...

His advice and encouragement have helped us along.

Just how much will never be told.

Yes, his loving grandchildren, honor him this day.

For our heritage we'll ever be proud

O We say—"Best Wishes" to you—as

We all sing your praises out loud.

Chorus

One hundred years time has counted off, tick, tock, tick, tock,

We're grateful for your honored life, tick tock, tick tock.

Now we bring you in song and in play,

All our very best wishes today.

For these many years you have made us welcome,

Many, Grandmother stood by your side,

And the smile on your face and the twinkle in your eyes were things you never could hide

Yes the stories that you told. we remember them so well,

As the cookies and the popcorn we enjoyed,

So here's thanking you and saying as we come along

Happy Birthday and Best Wishes to you.
