

Derek and Jon: here is a smattering of the tributes from Craig's former legal colleagues and associates in Seattle and Bellevue. I was asked to pass them on to Mary and the family. They are all heart-felt, but the last will have Craig chuckling: Marianne Clay was our German bookkeeper at Shidler, McBroom and she got a real kick out of Craig and me speaking German with her.

I'm also attaching another copy of the email I sent which advised of his passing and prompted the many responses. Blessings on you both, friends. Ross

Dave McDonald: I'm very sorry to hear this. Thank you for letting us know.

Hedy Lang: Hi Ross - thank you for sending this on. Even though the news is sad, I will always remember Craig for his smile, his gentleness and what a great addition he was to our firm.

Jim Irwin: Very sad. Please pass on Our thoughts and prayers to Mary and Craig's family.

John Seetoff: This is terribly sad news. As some of you know, my father Norm was very close to and deeply admired Craig. And as Pete and Pete know, Craig is entirely responsible for why I am on this email. Ross, please pass along to Mary and family our deepest sympathies and fondest memories.

Christine Welch: Please pass on my condolences. I worked as his secretary for a time and he was always so cheerful and earnest about his work. I recall that he suffered terribly from headaches and his solution was always a quick walk around the block. He was a kind man.

Pete Glase: Sorry to hear the sad news about Craig. We worked a lot together on Mall projects. I inherited the Debartolo accounts from Craig when he left for Utah. We kept I touch a lot of years regarding that client. Craig was an excellent lawyer. My best to his family in this hard time.

Merrilee MacLean: I most remember Craig's great smile - and the fact that at my first Retreat for the firm (Lucas Glase) at Port Ludlow, Craig and I were assigned as roommates. He was a lovely, caring man, and I will miss him.

Pete Lucas: This is sad news. Craig was a very bright and capable lawyer. He was a friend and I have many good memories of our time practicing together. Ross, thank you for sending this on. Please share our love and sympathy with Mary and the family.

Bill Butler: Ross, thanks for letting us know. I always loved Craig's jovial personality and his dedication to his clients. Please share Debbie's and my condolences to his family.

Larry Bailey: I am very sorry to hear of Craig's death. I did not know him well, but I enjoyed working with him and had great respect for legal skills. Ross, thanks for letting us know and please convey my sympathies and best wishes to his family at this most terrible time.

Marianne Clay: Auf Wiedersehen, Mr. Wentz. THE TIDE MAY ERASE OUR FOOTPRINTS, BUT ONLY FOR A MOMENT, FOR HAVING WALKED HERE ONCE, WE REMAIN ALWAYS. WITH DEEPEST SYMPATHY. MARIANNE
