Elaine Marie Hoffmann, the daughter of Emil and Gladys (Kodet) Wohnoutka, was born August 28, 1937 in Redwood Falls. She grew up on the family farm near Bechyn and received her elementary education in county school. Elaine graduated from Redwood Falls High School in 1956.

On June 10, 1958, Elaine married Victor I. Hoffmann at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Bechyn and they made their home on the farm near Wabasso. The couple ran their grain and dairy farm until 1990, when they retired and moved into Redwood Falls. Elaine and Victor began Hoffmann Trucking in 1978 and operated that until Victor's death in 1995. Elaine was a member of St. Catherine's Catholic Church. She belonged to the Council of Catholic Women (CCW) and worked on the funeral committee

Elaine's life revolved around her family¼ she loved to spend time with her children and grandchildren. It gave her great joy to cook and shop for her family and grandkids. In her younger years, Elaine enjoyed embroidery, gardening and flowers. Later, although she didn't care to watch much television, she enjoyed the old comedy shows.

Elaine is survived by her children Sandy (Adrian) Mayer of Orlando, Florida, Randy (Johnna) Hoffmann of Wabasso, Theresa (Greg) Rohlik of Wabasso, and Tim (Sonya) Hoffmann of Springfield¼ and grandchildren Marissa (Adam) Larsen, Jonathan Hoffmann, Ryan (Brianna) Rohlik, Nathan Rohlik, Laura Rohlik, Shawna (Jeff) Hamlin, Shayla Hoffmann, Kalley Hoffmann, and Shane Hoffmann. Also surviving are 13 grandchildren¼ sister Shirley Kretsch of Redwood Falls¼ and brothers Dale (Mary) Wohnoutka of Cottage Grove, and Doug Wohnoutka of Forest Lake.

She was preceded in death by her husband Victor in March 1995.

Blessed be her memory.
