
John H. Hoppin of Yolo county, California, died at the Grand Hotel, San Francisco, last Saturday, aged 68 years. He had been in ill health for years, and spent the Summers at his ranch in Humboldt county in this State, and the Winters in Southern California. He was elected to the Legislature in Humboldt county in 1872. He leaves a widow, but no children.

The Times Review says he was a ...