

Evelyn J. Gundry Pohar, 75

ROCKFORD — Evelyn J. Gundry Pohar, 75, formerly of Davis, died at 7:50 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 8, 2002, in Rockford Memorial Hospital. She was born June 20, 1927, in Beloit, Wis., to Leonard O. and Mildred M. (Robertson) Moe. Evelyn married James Gundry in 1946. James passed away in 1991. She married Leo C. Pohar on Nov. 24, 2001, in Davis. She attended Beloit schools and graduated from Beloit High School in 1945. She went back to school in 1978 and earned her LPN degree. Evelyn worked at Freeport Memorial Hospital and River Bluff Nursing Home for 15 years. She was a member of Faith Community Church in Davis. Evelyn enjoyed traveling, reading, embroidering and having her family at home. She is survived by husband, Leo of Rockford; three daughters, Victoria (Robby) Lawson of Dakota, Deborah (Jamie) Bubser of Pectonica and Lori (Al) Kortemeier of Freeport; three grandsons, James (Brenda) Lawson, Marc (Jena) Lawson and Scott (Janelle) Lawson; seven great-grandsons, Alex, Bryant, Lucus, Isaac, Bryce, Zachary and Keaton; a great-granddaughter, MaKenzie Lawson; stepdaughter, Jean (Gary) Sooter; stepson, David (Cocoya) Pohar; four stepgrandsons, Nicholas Pohar and Ryan, Stewart and Justin Campbell; aunt, Anna Espy; and numerous nieces, nephews and cousins. She also was preceded in death by her parents; two sisters, Elizabeth Moe and Mary Gauger; and brother, Sgt. William Moe, U.S. Air Force.

Funeral will be at 10 a.m. Saturday, Oct. 12, in Faith Community Church, 212 W. McKimmy St., Davis, with the Rev. Bob Kolb officiating. Burial will be in Davis Cemetery. Friends may call from 4 to 7 p.m. Friday, Oct. 11, at Faith Community Church. A memorial has been established. McCorkle Funeral Home, 101 Main St., Durand, assisted the family with arrangements. 10-10-2