

I feel very honored being here speaking to you today about Maynard. Maynard has touched each of our lives here today for good. I feel that we have been very blessed to have him in our family. It was a great day that he married grandma. It seemed from that moment he accepted us all and was very kind to us.

I have many wonderful memories of Maynard and I would like to share a couple with you. Maynard's personality came out in his actions. Every time we visited his and grandma's home in Ogden I can always remember how he helped grandma and took care of her. The other thing was how he loved to garden. You could tell that he loved nature. He had wonderful gardens of Flowers and Vegetables. He was always willing to share them with us.

One Memorial Day my family was traveling from Salt Lake to Brigham City. We had piled our 9 children in the station wagon and headed out to a Freeze Family Reunion. Driving older cars we always joked that we was heading out on a wing and a prayer. As we approached the Ogden Freeway exit something broke. I recall that it was probably the fan belt that broke. So we got out and pushed the car onto the exit, over a hill, and down into Ogden. Then trying to call from a pay phone for help, we soon found that everyone that we normally call to rescue us was out of town. So we was perplexed as to what to do. Then I thought call Maynard. As soon as he got our call he came to our rescue. He was so kind to us. Helped us with our children, took us to his home. Then going the extra mile he let us use his car to finish our outing and get our car fixed.

The other fun thing I remember is going to Maynard's home in Garden City and helping him paint it. He was pretty brave. Because he let
