

Ex-State Controller Horton Dead.
Special to the GAZETTE!

AUSTIN, (Nev.), May 13.—Ex-State Controller R. L. Horton died to-day at 10:15. He has been ill since Sunday of stomach and heart trouble.

Mr. Horton has been a leading man in Austin for many years and had accumulated a small fortune to add comfort to his declining years. He was elected State Controller in the election of 1890 and served four years. He leaves a family of grown children and a wife to mourn his death. Mr. Horton was one of the best of men, and made many warm friends while living in Carson.

---