

Arizona Daily Star

$1.50
plus tax
Two dollars and fifty cents outside
Southern Arizona

SERVING TUCSON SINCE 1877 • SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 2009 • REACHING 364,300 READERS

FINAL

Kathryn L. Tinney

January 16, 1923 - November 4, 2009

Kathryn was born in Winslow, AZ to Lawrence and Katherine O'Neal. She grew up on a farm in Phoenix where she became an expert horsewoman. She rode horseback in Western movies as a double for many actresses. She is survived by her loving husband, Clark and her daughter, Karen Russell. She is also survived by her grandchildren, Kathryn Poore (Dan), Kristen Winter (Jay), E. Scott Russell, Robert Tinney and Patrick Tinney; four great-grandchildren, Lindsey and Jackson Poore and Griffin and Molly Winter; her sister, Joan Shinn and her brother, John (Virginia) O'Neal and nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her son, Gerald and her son-in-law, Ernest Russell. She was active in the La Sertoma Club, the Arizona Genealogy Society and volunteered with many children's organizations. She enjoyed her family, travel, bowling, golf, sewing, crafts and gardening. She will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved her. A private Memorial is planned and the family suggests any memorials for her could be sent to the American Heart Association or the charity of their choice. Arrangements by BRING'S BROADWAY CHAPEL, 6910 E. Broadway.

SOURCE: "Kathryn L. Tinney," Arizona Daily Star, Tucson, Arizona, November 8, 2009, page B007.