

364 Downey Ave. Indianapolis, Ind.

Mar. 5, 1906

Mr. R. W. Johnson,
McComb, Okla.

Dear R. W. -

Yours of Feb. 19 received. I am glad to know you are getting along well. V. J. Huffman had told me before I left Holton that you had built a new house on your farm there. From what he said, I supposed it a great mansion. He spoke of its size and I concluded it larger than any house in Holton. I can scarcely believe he exaggerated, for you know he never does.

I am not thinking of going into the banking business, as I cannot come down there to