

think you could loan $700 or $800, or possibly $900 for me in this way, due in about two or three years? I would scarcely feel like loaning it in any other way except on a real estate mortgage, since I would prefer to receive a lower rate of interest and know that it is safe than to get 24% and run a risk such as one would have to.

How is Ira getting along? Is he still living in the section of the country he was?

Austin was over to visit us a while day before yesterday. He seems to be getting along well. He lives in the west part of Indianapolis, while I
