

364 Downey Ave. Indianapolis, Ind. Feb. 11, 1906.

Mr. R. W. Johnson,
Holton, Kan.

Dear Rufus:-

Not having heard anything from you for some time either through Austin or Sarah (since this was my way of hearing) I write this letter.

I presume John wrote you the particulars of Sarah's death. He said he was going to do so at once. I wrote Margaret the full particulars but have heard nothing from her since.

I am enjoying my work here in Butler College very much. I teach four hours per day and my work is so arranged that it all comes in the forenoon.

Austin is getting along very nicely here in his work. His salary is $1,000 per year, I believe, and he seems to be progressing. Since his wife's death his children have been living with their grandparents. They have a good home there.

I have heard nothing from either John or Owen since I was up there to attend Sarah's funeral. I presume they are getting along all right.
