

Suzanne

Dear Kathy,

I will never forget you, and this is my way of showing you what you've meant to me during these weeks of my life. When you could smile through the pain you were in, it reminded me of the flowers and the sunshine, that these things still exist, and that strength is often found in something fragile.

God bless you and your sweet husband. I hope all will go well with you in your battle with the pain that you live with daily. Conquering things that are out to get us down is often a display of our faith, and I know yours is great.

With love and sincerity,

Susan
